OAK ROOM GETS A MAKEOVER

With Dumbleton Hall's Oak Room proving to be a premier venue for weddings, conferences, functions and events, it deserves a bit of TLC. Care was taken to ensure any work would blend in with the luxurious country house style of the other public rooms. The transformation has been a success with the room's beautiful oak panelling and stunning wall friezes now being emphasised by the freshly painted ceiling, striking carpeting and richly patterned curtains, just perfect for family celebrations.

MISSING LYRIC COMPETITION

There's something to sing about at Friars!

We all sing along to The Twelfth Day of Christmas e.g. 7 swans a-swimming, etc. But with 13 guinea fowl now resident in the hotel grounds we could do with a Thirteenth Day too. So have some fun with family and friends over the festive season deciding what the guinea fowl would be up to.

Just complete the lyric and post your entry, plus your name, address and membership number, to Robin at Head Office to arrive no later than 4pm on 13th January 2012.

Nick Brown's new friends keenly await the end of his shift

*"On the 13th day of Christmas
my true love sent to me
13 guinea fowl a-....."*

The best entry will Win a £25 M&S Voucher and the winner's name and lyric will be published in the next newsletter unless requested otherwise.

BIG FISH WANTED!

It's here – our very first "Largest Fish of the Season" competition. Next time you land a big fish at Friars Carse, get your catch recorded before you return it to the water and you could Win a Voucher for "Reel Them In", Friars' local angling centre.

Nick Brown, General Manager, says "The first competition winner will be advised in December 2012. The hotel is becoming a recognised angling venue and we are considering ideas from angling members to improve the facilities."

STOP PRESS: From the start of the 2012 salmon season, Friars' fishing beat will be extended upstream by 2/3rds of a mile, opening up the Carse Mains beat which has been closed to the public for 30 years.

Competitions are not open to employees.
